EASTERN HOTEL,

...WAY STREET,... BOSTON

Opposite Eastern Railroad Depot and is immediately convenient of the Fitchburg, Lowell, and Maine Depots

THIS Hotel has been finished and furnished in a splendid manner throughout, and is conducted upon the most popular plan. The apartments are occupied for sleeping apartments only, and are splendidly furnished with all the modern improvements. This Hotel is finely located for the accommodation of business men, and they will find it a convenient, comfortable, and economical place to stop at. Those who like the European plan of having meals when they want, and paying for just what they have, an elegant table at this place will always be found. Every attention and the most comfortable

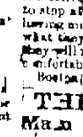
THE HATCH HOUSE,

Main Street, Bangor, Maine.



This House has been thoroughly repaired refitted, and refurnished throughout with new Carpets Furniture Beds and Bedding and is now open for the reception of company under the charge of the subscriber. It is a large, commodious, and well furnished House situated on Main street, near the centre of the city and within a short distance of the Steamboat Wharves, the Depot of the P. & K. Railroad and the Depot from which Coaches are always in readiness to convey passengers.

Its numerous advantages to strangers and travellers to those visiting the city on business or for pleasure, are dealt upon the most desirable terms at the option of the purchaser.

The advantages of the Hydropathic Establishment—In proceeding to other Hydropathic Establishments a double fare will be avoided, and the expense of a carriage, steady, or disciplinarian, is required to meet the proper case. But here you have a Specific Remedy for each particular disease, and the patient is not subjected to any inconvenience whatever.

Connected with the House is a large and commodious Stable, in charge of a competent and faithful hostler.

By strict personal attention to the comfort of his guests the proprietor hopes to receive a liberal share of patronage.

NATHAN EGERY, Jr

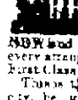
STANLEY HOUSE,

WATER STREET, AUGUSTA, ME.



C. W. BLOCKER, would respectfully announce to the Travelling Public that he has reopened the Stanley House Augusta, and furnished it throughout with NEW and ELEGANT FURNITURE, and made every arrangement for the reception of visitors to continue it as a First Class Hotel.

From the most central situated House in the city, being directly opposite the depot, and in close proximity to the steamboat landing, Court House Post Office and Banks, a few minutes walk from the State House.

Business men or persons coming for pleasure, will find that they will receive every convenience or luxury that can be required, and the proprietor is determined to spare no pains to make it in every respect second to none in the State.

Hooks and Stalls have been arranged where horses will be kept and Stables attached to the House.

In connection with the House are good Stables with attentive and careful hostlers.

Homœopathic Medicines,

...FOR...

Families, Travelers, and Others

THESE Medicines have been carefully prepared, with a view of supplying families and others with Special Remedies against all common diseases which occur in every day life. The list is chosen not only because few for all the more common diseases, such as Coughs Colds Headache, derangement of the Stomach, Fever, Worm Complaints, Diarrhœa &c., but also for those acute sudden and violent diseases to which people are liable, such as Cramp, Cholera, Dysentery, Inflammation &c., for whose treatment it is very important always to have the proper remedies at hand. There are also remedies for those more delicate Female derangements which a lady finds it so difficult to describe, but yet a freedom from which is so much to the happiness of life.

These Medicines are prepared in the form of Sugar Pellets, one of which is sufficient for the largest dose, and put up in boxes properly labelled. Each box contains 36 or 40 Pellets, and 15 boxes, of the different kinds are enclosed in a case, accompanied with a small Manual or Book of Directions giving a concise description of the diseases treated, and directions for varying the medicines, &c., &c., necessary for every case. Cases also, containing four or six of the small boxes, and a vial which may be supplied with any of the different kinds at the option of the purchaser.

The advantages of Specific Homœopathic Medicines.—In proceeding to other Homœopathic Medicines a double fare will be avoided, and the expense of a carriage, steady, or disciplinarian, is required to meet the proper case. But here you have a Specific Remedy for each particular disease, and the patient is not subjected to any inconvenience whatever. The advantages are thus obvious to all.

WHALEBONE SKIRTS.

THE only object of a Whalebone Skirt is to give a proper graceful and elegant form to a lady's dress. Unless this is accomplished, the article is entirely worthless. The Ladies, by referring to Frank Leslie's Illustrated for March or April will notice that E. & S. HOLMES have, from actual experience, been successful in producing this most desirable article, and that their Patent and Clamped Skirt meets with unanimous approbation of the ladies. They are light flexible, and easily adjusted, and the only Skirt which is properly adapted to the sofa, or the street and the crowd. Smooth in one place or breadth, and in our opinion and in the opinion of thousands of ladies who have bought them, the most reliable Legends of Skirt in the market. We were the first to put, close a Whalebone skirt, and from the experience of the manufacture and sale of these goods we have found that all kinds of cotton cord, and nearly all kinds of cord and all starched goods do not retain satisfactorily, as they will not recover the place when pressed out of shape. We consider a as worthless of whatever material made unless there is assurance of superior fastenings and clasps by which the same is to be held in place when pressed out of shape. We consider a Whalebone Skirt worthless unless it will recover its proper shape when pressed out of shape, and as we assist in manufacturing that they will not roll or curl when wet, and warranted to wash without injury. The public are cautioned against worthless goods as the market is now flooded with them. To those who have used our Patent Clamped Skirts, and have found them unsatisfactory, we would say that we have improved upon them, and are now prepared to furnish a Skirt which will be found perfect in every particular. Those who have not used our Skirts will find them unsurpassed for durability, elegance and comfort. Ladies will please call and examine for themselves. Also, for sale, a large assortment of Ladies' Corsets, Hoop Skirts, Balmoral Skirts, Flannels, Cloaks, Shawls, Hosiery, Gloves, Ribbons, Laces, Embroideries, Trimmings, Fancy Goods, &c. &c. AGENCY FOR BUSINESS WITH THE U. S. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State Street, opposite Kilby St.

BOSTON

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS.—The subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office under the Act of 1836) determined to present advantages in applying for patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements, whereby, on application (post paid) and inclosing a model of his invention, with a description of the principle and operation thereof, he will be furnished, through this Agency, with the necessary papers for obtaining a patent; and the patent obtained, if he should desire it, will be transmitted to him—all for the sum of FIFTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid heretofore.) If no patent be obtained, the fee will be returned. Circulars containing full directions for procuring patents, with the highest testimonials from Inventors, Members of Congress, Judges, Postmasters, Mechanics, and others who have availed themselves of my services, can be had by addressing me as above.

was her answer The Judge left the room, and when an hour after he returned, under the more subdued manner took part in the entertainment of the bridal guests, no one suspected social life which none can wish to dispense with. We regale on party spent the friendship of years, and answer the arguments of principles with vituperations of character Neither is so sound that is not degraded, nothing so good that it is not corrupted, nothing so sacred that it is not profaned The luxurious palate of hate cannot be pulled but by masticating all those qualities and excellences of the individual world adorn society and civilization. The Hon Lot M. Morrill has already been subjected to a torrent of personal vituperation, by certain papers and government officers for his honorable, consistent and patriotic course in his present campaign Can some specimens of "malice," "repugnate," "the temper not to be taken of his party, "bought by cogio promises," corrupt and venal politicians, and such like expressions have been poured upon him by men from whom he has a right to all manliness and honor to have expected different treatment In the most violent contests between the late Whig and Democratic parties no Whig speaker or paper that I know of ever vituperated a word against his unblemished character and laudable patriotism

In honorable contrast with these detractions, read the following extract from a letter received by me from a young and influential gentleman, from the county of Franklin who has long known Mr Morrill and is almost a neighbor, of no party character. The blandishments of party, and the dangers of office which he has had presented will not upon him have not stifled the native manliness and generosity of his heart He speaks of his friend as he ought to, of the great profession of the Democratic party and to complete the harmony This gentleman is a recent Locofocal Mr Farwell Thomas Jefferson and the impress of duty of standing by the old Mr Morrill, and save the once proud name of Democracy from subjection to Slavery

I do no think I violate the confidence of private correspondence in publishing the following extract but as the statements of the writer are so probable to himself that the publication of them can only advance that high estimation in which he is held by all who know him

My Dear Sir

But however much I may regret the present political attitude I or one shall join in no effort to traduce or vilify him for my long and intimate acquaintance with him has satisfied me that a gentleman of more conscientious and honorable principles than Hon Lot M Morrill does not breath God's free air I am profoundly impressed with the belief that regard for the Union constitutions and the harmony of his political views drive him against it He has gone in opposition to the Cincinnati Platform In act his present position is not unprecedented any one familiar with the history of our political for the past two years From this time forth from the rank to take growing intelligence of the contest stated abrogation of the Missouri Compromise to the announcement of the succeeding through the general prostration of the Democratic party, there has been no concealment of his sentiments or his reluctance to the principles of the Nebraska Kansas bill, and if anything has been needful to unite him more and more with the Democracy of his State which he has done under the dictates of the most high pleasure The less we stress which shall now occur in it as the less difficulty will be found in pushing Buchanan above the floating points in the coming canvass. Still there has been no change of policy and if it be deemed necessary by the South one politicians have murdered any person will be superseded as they many scale when his character and these principles The treason trials will doubtless be postponed until after election when the prisoners will be hanged or released as the South shall think most politic—Cor N Y Tribune

RELEASED FROM CAPTIVITY.—California papers state that a beautiful young American girl named Miss Canada, was recently rescued from captivity among the Kaws Indians. She was the daughter of Lorenzo Ospaha, who in 1854 started from Iowa for California across the plains, with his wife and seven children — On the route they were all massacred except one boy and two girls by the Kaws Indians. The boy escaped, and was picked up by some emigrants; but nothing was heard of the girls until the Kaws Indians offered to exchange two female prisoners with the officers at Fort Laramie for beads, blankets &c Col Nichols offered the ransom, and an Indian brought in Miss Ospaha. One of the captives, Miss Jane man almost forgot her native tongue, being able to speak only a few words Her sister the about eight months before she was liberated.—Miss Ospaha is but now of a light golden color, but the Indians painted it black She was eleven years old when taken prisoner

It is one of the questions for men with as rulers of intemperate habits them to support the above principles, and, we think, deserving and unpolitical has been Democrats. That duty is evident, and we hope Democrats in your town, whom we can confer with hereafter,

Address, HERRIN & BROWN, Jr
Washington City, D C 1856

Instead of sending the Three Dollars to Washington, as requested, the gentleman sent it up to pay for one Copy of the Evening Journal! This may be taken as a significant sign of the times! Albany Journal

It is now Democratic policy to stop the fighting in Kansas The marauders will continue to ravage the Territory, destroy the property of the Free State men, but the work has been pretty well roughly done and it is assumed that the terrible scenes of the Fall and Spring campaigns will prevent the renewal of emigration from the North. The South has no special immunity in the game it is playing, being chiefly intent upon making Kansas a Slave State, which duty has been done under the dicta of the high functionaries. The less we stress which shall now occur in it as the less difficulty will be found in pushing Buchanan above the floating points in the coming canvass. Still there has been no change of policy and if it be deemed necessary by the South one politicians have murdered any person will be superseded as they many scale when his character and these principles The treason trials will doubtless be postponed until after election when the prisoners will be hanged or released as the South shall think most politic—Cor N Y Tribune

The New York Daily Times says that the election of Fremont and Dayton would bring into the Federal service a class of men in the Southern States who are now excluded by the Slaveholding Oligarchy because they can not be made the tools of its schemes It would substantially release the Southern mind from the thralldom in which it has so long been held And the reason of such a bestowal of the Executive patronage would be to create a sound and healthy sentiment at the Southern States upon this and every other subject Men then would dare to think, and their sentiments and not upon their own convictions of duty

ARRIVAL OF THE

DANIEL WEBSTER.

New Orleans, July 12th

The steamship Daniel Webster has arrived at this port with San Francisco dates to the 25th ult. The Golden Age left Aspinwall for New York with $2,000,000 in specie, and also took over a large number of the United States troops, to the late Nicaragua difficulty.

Several more decrease in the anti-foreign feeling. Very few responded to the governor's proclamation of June 4th.

The Committee had opened bodies of the names of recruits were not given up. The Committee have $6000 stand of arms, 6 pieces of cannon. Their forces are divided into 10 regiments, and they have a strong breastworks in front of their encampment. At the top of the building they have a cannon built, and in Yates street rolls and a few pieces of cannon. The Government is trying to get arms and ammunition from the United States. General Wool refused to do anything for them, as long as Gen. Walker remained in the country, therefore the Government forces will not enough people near them to attack them.

Six persons have been arrested by the Committee, and they continue to arrest others. On the 4th of July Governor Wright's proclamation was read in the streets by the sheriff, accompanied by the usual ceremonies. The meetings following the note of the Committee, at once commenced forming organizations and drilling, and carrying out their measures with energy. The meetings were numerous.

No election was held in public.

Reports from the mines were favorable to the miners. Provisions good.

Two more vessels arrived from Atlantic ports.

The Vigilance Committee continued. General Wool was attacked near the Mission by Col. Wright and wounded. The Indians were defeated. Col. Wright and one other man had been killed by the Yakima Indians.

Advices from Nicaragua is very important. Walker was elected President.

Gen. Wheeler was the Minister of Washington to the 12th inst., and afterwards appointed Consulate. They there collected 5000 men, and sailed on the 20th, and ordered the Americans to evacuate Leon. The order was obeyed, and Rivas took possession with 7000 men.

Walker has declared the Rivas party traitors. Most of the officers of the army have resigned by Walker.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, July 12.

In the Senate to-day the Kansas question was resumed by which the bill appropriating $20,000 for the payment of the Delaware Indians, was referred to the Committee of the Whole. In the House, there was a discussion of the report on the Sumner affair.

Mr. Olmsted, who was entitled to the floor, yielded to Mr. English, who wished to offer an amendment to the pending question declaring that House disapproves of the assault upon Mr. Sumner, in language to express its disapprobation of the use of language in debate, and to put a stop to individual members, or a single one.

Mr. Campbell, of Ohio, wished to know whether the gentleman was restraining him from amending the resolution.

Speaker replied that it would not prevent Mr. Campbell from perfecting the original proposition.

Messrs. Orr and Matteson objected to Mr. English offering an amendment.

Mr. Campbell said he should move the previous question to make a vote on Mr. Bocock's resolution and understanding that if that was adopted he desired to be heard, he would withdraw it for that purpose, but not for the general debate. (Voices—That's fair.)

Mr. Orr was in favor of the resolution, but thought the Committee of Elections ought to report a resolution declaring what the measure of punishment should be.

Mr. Bocock was willing that the House should determine for itself what punishment was proper.

Mr. Stanton was fully satisfied that the House had jurisdiction over the subject, but Mr. Brooks should be exempt from the censure proposed by the Committee. If prompted by honor he could wish Mr. Brooks are entitled to the credit of public duty compelled him to-day to say that Mr. Brooks should be punished. He insisted that no man could be punished except in pursuance of previous law. The act of Brooks was not, disorderly conduct. It was not the Constitution intended it, the power of punishment did not embrace a general class of offences, but was restricted to offences which were committed in the presence of the House.

Mr. Harlan replied on the ground of the Committee had been quoted to show that the House had jurisdiction over this offence. But the same clause does confer jurisdiction to punish for disorderly conduct, to punish the House expel a member? The House to determine. This power has been abused and would not be now. Some of the expressions of both sections, he admitted that the speeches in this House were intended to affect principles, but he knew who were to speak.

Mr. Stanton said more than three-quarters of the members retired to dinner.

Mr. Nichols said this matter ought to be considered as it was in the House shall take a course. Where Mr. Brooks concluded to assault Mr. Sumner, therefore he had to take all the consequences, whether he nor his friends approbation of the act.

Mr. Keitt severely condemned the assault and called the sentiments of Massachusetts, and on the resolutions of her Legislature.

Mr. Winslow spoke of the assault as a brutal outrage. It had been said that there was no justice in English, who wished to offer an amendment to the pending question declaring that House disapproves of the assault upon Mr. Sumner, in language to express its disapprobation of the use of language in debate, and to put a stop to individual members, or a single one.

Mr. Campbell, of Ohio, wished to know whether the gentleman was restraining him from amending the resolution.

Speaker replied that it would not prevent Mr. Campbell from perfecting the original proposition.

Messrs. Orr and Matteson objected to Mr. English offering an amendment.
